Outline - Introduction

It is easy to notice other people's mistakes. But it is hard to recognize one's own faults. The Bible readings this morning are telling us to pay attention to ourselves inwardly. There is a well-known brother who brought up the notion of reevaluating elders. The first scripture reading that was read in your hearing admonishes the Ephesian elders to "take heed unto yourselves and to all the flock among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers…" (Acts 20:28).

A. This Bible is God breathed (inspired) (2 Tim. 3:16) (NKJV)
    1. In the past, it was argued that elders were just like anyone else with as much authority as any one else.
    2. And charged the translators of the KJV and others giving the elders authority they really don't have. They are examples it is said.
    3. They haven't really read that verse.
        a. It says, "The Holy Spirit made them overseers."
        b. 1 Peter 5:1-5.

B. The Lord's supper (1 Cor. 11:27-28)
    1. "Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup."
    2. It is the manner in which the Lord's Supper is to be that should be worthy.

C. Examine yourselves (2 Cor. 13:5)
    1. "Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith."
    2. Test yourselves

Conclusion:

A. If a man is overtaken in a trespass

B. The spiritual>restore such a one

C. In the spirit of gentleness

D. Considering yourself (Gal.6:4 examine his own work)
