Sermon

Preacher: Scott Reynolds

(1:50 - 2:11) Introduction to "The Seven Threats of Our Time"

- Introduces the series by Dr. Del Tackett, focusing on the third threat, "The Loss of the Noble Male and the Rise of Malevolent Compassion."

(2:12 - 2:51) Cultural and Biblical Sexuality Discussion

- Begins discussing the cultural controversy surrounding human sexuality from a biblical perspective.
- Mentions this as part of a larger series on cultural threats, identifying it as a significant issue in Western culture.

(2:51 - 3:16) Storm Fronts in Culture

- Describes cultural changes as storm fronts converging on Western culture, not merely meteorological but ideological.

(3:17 - 3:39) Overview of the Seven Threats

- Introduces the purpose of the series to navigate through these cultural storm fronts, identifying the first two threats discussed earlier.

(3:40 - 4:05) The Rise of the Scoffer and Depraved Mind

- Discusses the progression from simple-mindedness to scoffing, as described in Proverbs, noting the societal impact of scoffers.

(4:05 - 4:35) Effects of the Depraved Mind

- Explains the concept of a depraved mind leading to cultural strife and division, referencing Romans 1.

(4:36 - 5:11) Stages of Cultural Degradation

- Details the stages of cultural degradation as per Romans 1, from sexual impurity to shameful lusts due to rejection of God's truth.

(5:11 - 5:31) Legal and Cultural Shifts

- Notes the rapid cultural shift towards acceptance of non-traditional sexual relationships, culminating in legal changes.

(5:32 - 5:59) Loss of Logical Thinking

- Discusses the transition to a depraved mind that no longer follows logic or common sense, leading to cultural irrationality.

(5:59 - 6:36) Biblical Logic and Cultural Decline

- Contrasts biblical logic with current cultural logic, using examples from the Old and New Testament.

(6:37 - 7:19) Experiential Evidence of Depravity

- Provides anecdotal evidence of the depraved mind in modern interactions, where logic and facts are dismissed.

(7:21 - 7:41) Cultural Shift to Emotion Over Reason

- Notes the cultural shift from reason to emotion, leading to a society where personal feelings dictate truth.

(7:42 - 8:14) Homo Deus and Neo-Christianity

- Introduces the concept of 'Homo Deus' where individuals see themselves as divine based on personal feelings rather than objective truth.

(8:14 - 9:00) Personal Pronouncement as Divine Truth

- Further elaborates on how personal identity claims are treated as divine proclamations, potentially leading to new forms of blasphemy.

(9:00 - 9:21) Impact on Christianity

- Discusses how this cultural shift has influenced Christianity, where faith becomes about personal validation rather than scriptural truth.

(9:23 - 9:44) Introduction to Third Storm Front

- Introduces the topic of the loss of the noble male and the rise of malevolent compassion, planned to be discussed in two parts.

(9:45 - 10:22) Deep Dive into Cultural Issues

- Sets the stage for discussing human sexuality from a biblical perspective, noting its contentious nature in modern culture.

(10:22 - 10:50) Cultural Attack on Biblical Sexuality

- Lists various contemporary issues as examples of an attack on traditional biblical views of sexuality.

(10:51 - 12:05) List of Cultural Issues Related to Sexuality

- Enumerates numerous modern issues related to gender and sexuality, illustrating the broad impact on society and politics.

(12:06 - 12:28) Historical Biblical References to Empires

- Links the fall of ancient empires to their moral and cultural decay, preparing to discuss scriptural warnings.

(12:28 - 12:42) Nahum's Warning to Nineveh

- Reiterates the scripture from Nahum about Nineveh's fall.

(12:42 - 13:19) Interpretation of Scripture on Gender Roles

- Clarifies that the critique in scripture is not against women but about men abandoning their roles, leading to societal downfall.

(13:20 - 13:42) Role of the Noble Male

- Discusses the traditional role of males in protection and defense, using the example of Nineveh's fall.

(13:43 - 14:17) Feminization of Men

- Elaborates on the concept of men becoming feminized as a cultural critique, not a denigration of femininity.

(14:19 - 14:49) Genesis and Creation of Gender

- Reflects on Genesis 1:27, emphasizing that both male and female are made in God's image but with distinct roles.

(14:49 - 15:40) Diversity in Gender Creation

- Further explores the biblical narrative on the creation of male and female, highlighting their complementary nature.

(15:42 - 16:16) Purpose and Role Differences

- Discusses the radical idea in modern times that men and women are inherently different by divine design.

(16:17 - 16:52) Malachi's Message on Marriage

- Reaffirms the scriptural view on marriage from Malachi, focusing on unity, covenant, and divine purpose.

(16:54 - 17:31) Conclusion of Malachi's Teaching

- Concludes with God's warning against faithlessness in marriage, emphasizing the spiritual implications of such actions.

(17:31 - 18:03) Essence of Human Nature

- Discusses the fundamental nature of humans as male and female, created by God, highlighting why these roles are targeted by cultural forces.

(18:03 - 18:43) Roles of Noble Male and Virtuous Female

- Introduces the metaphor of two engines (truth/wisdom/righteousness and grace/compassion) for understanding the roles of the noble male and virtuous female.

(18:44 - 18:59) Noble Male's Engines

- Describes the noble male as driven by a pursuit of truth, wisdom, and righteousness.

(18:59 - 19:10) Pursuit of Truth by the Noble Male

- Emphasizes that the noble male's pursuit of truth can lead to self-sacrifice.

(19:11 - 19:33) Compassion in the Noble Male

- Notes that the noble male's pursuit of righteousness is balanced by grace and compassion.

(19:34 - 19:50) Purpose of the Male

- Explains the male's physical design as suited for protection and defense of what is good and beautiful.

(19:51 - 20:06) Virtuous Female's Engines

- Describes the virtuous female as driven first by grace and compassion, but tempered by truth, righteousness, and wisdom.

(20:07 - 20:27) Role of the Virtuous Female

- Highlights her purpose to nurture and comfort, guided by truth and righteousness.

(20:27 - 20:49) Virtuous Female's Nurturing Role

- Further elaborates on the virtuous female's nurturing role, emphasizing its alignment with good, true, and right principles.

(20:50 - 21:11) Cultural Rejection of Divine Truth

- Discusses the impact when a culture rejects divine truth, wisdom, and righteousness.

(21:12 - 21:36) Loss of Noble Male's Purpose

- Explains how without external truth or righteousness, the noble male's protective role turns inward, focusing on self.

(21:37 - 22:01) Transformation into Buffoon or Brute

- Describes how men without a higher purpose become either self-absorbed buffoons or brutish, power-seeking figures.

(22:02 - 22:47) Impact on Virtuous Female

- Details how in a culture rejecting divine principles, the virtuous female's compassion becomes untethered, losing its moral compass.

(22:48 - 23:11) The Brutish Male

- Focuses on the brutish male whose purpose becomes self-focused, leading to domination and control.

(23:12 - 23:47) Brutish Male's Power and Control

- Provides examples like Eastern Europe and ISIS where brutish males dominate without compassion.

(23:48 - 23:59) Characteristics of the Brutish Male

- Describes the brutish male as a tyrant, focused on personal pleasure and control.

(23:59 - 24:10) Examples of Brutish Male Behavior

- Lists examples of the brutish male in various contexts like gangs, domestic violence, and extremist groups.

(24:10 - 24:24) Brutish Male's Cultural Impact

- Notes the brutish male's self-absorption in contemporary culture through drinking, sports, and video games.

(24:25 - 24:45) Virtuous Female in Brutish Culture

- Explains how women become secondary, treated as property in cultures dominated by brutish males.

(24:46 - 25:02) Toxicity and Subservience

- Discusses how grace and compassion are seen as weaknesses, pushing women towards subservience.

(25:05 - 25:31) The Buffoon Male

- Introduces the concept of the buffoon male in modern media, where men are portrayed as self-centered and inept.

(25:31 - 25:50) Cultural Representation of Buffoon Male

- Gives examples from popular culture, like TV shows and children's books, where male characters are buffoonish.

(25:50 - 26:02) Cultural Depictions

- Further exemplifies the buffoon male in commercials and TV shows.

(26:02 - 26:22) Buffoon Male's Selfishness

- Describes the buffoon male as self-absorbed, with nothing beyond himself to protect or defend.

(26:23 - 26:54) Impact on Family

- Discusses how the buffoon male abandons family responsibilities, either physically or emotionally.

(26:55 - 27:16) Unbridled Compassion

- Introduces the concept of unbridled compassion in the virtuous female when truth and righteousness are absent.

(27:16 - 27:31) Unbounded Compassion

- Elaborates on how compassion without moral guidance becomes harmful or malevolent.

(27:32 - 27:50) Cultural Shift in Roles

- Notes the shift where women increasingly take leadership roles due to male abdication.

(27:51 - 28:14) Unbridled Compassion as Cultural Ethic

- Suggests unbridled compassion has become the guiding ethic in modern culture.

(28:15 - 28:33) Cultural Perception of Male Roles

- Describes how society now views traditional male roles as toxic, pushing men to adopt more feminine traits.

(28:33 - 28:52) Rejection of Noble Male Traits

- States the culture's rejection of traits associated with the noble male, like defending absolute truths.

(28:52 - 29:11) Cultural Rejection of Christian Worldview

- Links the rejection of noble male characteristics to a broader rejection of biblical Christianity.

(29:12 - 29:37) Examples of Noble Male Sacrifice

- Provides historical and hypothetical examples of noble male sacrifice, like on the Titanic or in battle.

(29:37 - 29:52) Virtuous Female in Proverbs 31

- Highlights the virtuous woman from Proverbs 31, whose actions are morally guided.

(29:52 - 30:16) Proverbs 31 Woman's Compass

- Details how the Proverbs 31 woman's actions are rooted in truth, wisdom, and righteousness.

(30:17 - 30:47) Malevolent Compassion

- Discusses the rise of what is termed 'malevolent compassion' when unbridled compassion becomes the norm.

(30:49 - 30:57) Closing Invitation

- Concludes with an invitation for reflection or response during a hymn, suggesting ongoing discussion on the topic.
