Summary

Preacher: Mike Mathis

(1:22 - 2:29) Introduction to Concept of Submission

- The speaker then introduces that they will discuss submission, starting with 1 Corinthians 11.
- Submission is described as a concept disliked by some who prefer to have things their way.

(2:30 - 3:42) Definition and Synonyms of Submission

- The term 'submit' is defined using Webster's online dictionary as yielding to another's power.
- 'Subjecting' is mentioned as a synonym, also related to obedience and accountability.

(3:43 - 4:11) Submission in Relation to Authority

- The discussion shifts to the importance of submitting to God's authority to avoid disruption and division.

(4:15 - 5:01) Introduction to 1 Corinthians 11:1-3

- The speaker introduces the passage from 1 Corinthians, which talks about imitation of Christ and the order of headship.

(5:02 - 6:19) Explanation of Order in Headship

- The passage explains the hierarchical order: God is the head of Christ, Christ the head of man, and man the head of woman.

(6:20 - 7:37) Further Explanation of Headship

- Clarification that in this context, 'God' refers to the Father, in relation to Christ.

(7:39 - 13:53) Theological Implications of Headship and Submission

- Emphasizes the need for agreement with God and separation from idolatry.
- Discusses becoming children of God through faith and baptism, referencing various scriptures including Isaiah, John, and Galatians.
- Explains that baptism symbolizes death, burial, and resurrection, aligning with Christ's obedience to God.

(13:54 - 15:31) Jesus' Submission to the Father

- Jesus acknowledges doing nothing of Himself but as instructed by the Father, as seen in John 8.
- Jesus asserts that His testimony is true because He and the Father bear witness together.

(15:32 - 17:20) Jesus' Willing Obedience

- Discusses how Jesus willingly submitted to the Father's will, even to death, as prophesied in the Old Testament.

(17:21 - 18:38) Jesus' Power Over His Life

- Jesus explains that He has the power to lay down His life and take it again, fulfilling the Father's command.

(18:38 - 20:53) Jesus' Mind and Humility

- From Philippians 2, the humility and obedience of Jesus are highlighted, contrasting with misunderstandings of His mission.

(20:55 - 22:48) Christ's Pre-existence and Humility

- Christ's eternal nature is affirmed, explaining how He humbled Himself, taking on human form and obedience to death.

(22:48 - 23:48) Sinlessness of Christ

- Jesus did not sin, even when reviled, and His death and resurrection are pivotal events.

(23:56 - 28:08) Christ's Authority and Baptism

- Discussion on the recognition of Christ's authority and the event of His baptism by John the Baptist, where the Holy Spirit and God's voice affirm Jesus' divine identity.

(28:10 - 30:10) Authority of Jesus

- Jesus, after His resurrection, declares in Matthew 28:18 that all authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Him, emphasizing the need for submission to His authority.
- The speaker notes that some individuals resist submitting to any authority, including Christ, highlighting the consequences of such refusal.
- Reference is made to John 12:48 where Jesus warns that those who reject Him and His words will be judged by those words on the last day.

(30:12 - 31:12) Judgment and Obedience

- Emphasis on the inevitability of judgment based on Jesus' words, stressing the importance of obedience and submission.
- The speaker clarifies that obedience involves action, not just acknowledgment of words, aligning with Jesus' example of submission to God.

(31:12 - 31:18) Call to Obedience

- A direct call for the audience to obey and be submissive as Jesus was.

(31:22 - 32:06) Final Judgment and Invitation

- Reiterates the concept of being judged by Christ's words and poses a rhetorical question about submitting to God's directives.
- An invitation is extended to the audience to respond to the gospel, specifically through baptism or any other response they feel necessary to make known to the church.

(32:07 - 32:13) Closing Prayer and Action

- The speaker encourages immediate action or prayer for those needing to respond to the message, followed by a suggestion to stand and sing.
