1st Scripture Reading (0:03 - 0:47), Wyatt Woosley

Exodus 23:20-22

- Scripture Reading: The speaker directs the audience to read from Exodus where God promises to send an angel to guard and lead the Israelites.
- Divine Command: God instructs the Israelites to be obedient to the angel, warning against rebellion as the angel carries His authority.

2nd Scripture Reading (0:52 - 1:20), John Nousek

- Scriptural Continuation: Another reading from Exodus 33:14 where God assures Moses that His presence will accompany them, providing rest.

Summary

Preacher: Jim Lokenbauer

(1:24 - 2:18) Encouragement and Personal Reflection

- Morning Greeting: The preacher acknowledges the good weather and expresses joy in presenting God's word.
- Personal Study: The speaker shares his ongoing personal study to understand God, highlighting the challenge of balancing study with life's demands and his proclivity towards laziness.

(2:19 - 4:55) The Battle with Laziness and Commitment to Preaching

- Life's Challenges: Discusses the struggle between personal laziness and spiritual duties, particularly with health issues like congestive heart failure.

- Spiritual Support: Acknowledges the help of the Holy Spirit in overcoming these challenges.
- Role as Preacher: Commits to providing accurate and truthful lessons, emphasizing the importance of self-denial as taught by Jesus.

(4:56 - 6:49) Revelation of God Through Creation and Believers

- Nature as Evidence: Argues that the complexity of nature points to an intelligent creator, not random chance.
- Transformation Through Scripture: Explains how believers reflect God's nature as they engage with the Bible, transforming through the Holy Spirit.

(6:50 - 8:13) Historical Context and God's Promises

- Historical Sermons: Refers back to a sermon on the names of God, emphasizing the importance of knowing God through His word.
- God's Interaction with Moses: Describes Moses' conversation with God, seeking to know Him better, which God honored by promising His presence.

(8:14 - 13:50) Contextualization and God's Angel

- Acknowledgment: Thanks Sean for reading scripture.
- Further Scriptural Context: Provides more context from Exodus 33 where Moses asks God to teach him His ways.
- God's Commitment: God agrees to go with Moses and the Israelites, distinguishing them from other nations by His presence.

(13:50 - 15:22) The Angel of the Lord and Covenants

- Multiple Manifestations: Suggests that God's presence with Israel would be through various forms or "faces" of Himself.

(15:22 - 18:06) Isaiah's Prophecy and the Angel's Identity

- Isaiah 63: Discusses how Isaiah describes the multifaceted roles of the angel, including savior, redeemer, and Holy Spirit, linking this to Jesus.

(18:07 - 20:19) Messianic Titles and the Godhead

- Messianic Prophecies: Relates the description of the Messiah in various scriptures to the roles and titles of God, illustrating the unity within the Trinity.

(20:23 - 21:23) The Trinity and Interaction with Mankind

- Jesus as Yahweh: The preacher explains that the second person of the Trinity, known to us as Jesus, has always been the one who interacts with humanity.

- Old Testament Appearances: Jesus appeared in various forms in the Old Testament, including as the rock providing water, the source of manna, and as the pillar of fire and cloud guiding Israel.

(21:25 - 22:51) Jesus' Identity and Names

- Angel of the Lord: Jesus is identified as the Angel of the Lord or Jehovah's Angel, directly interfacing with humans.
- I AM Statements: Jesus' "I AM" statements in the Gospel of John are linked to Yahweh, reinforcing his divine identity.

(22:53 - 23:42) The Burning Bush Encounter

- Moses and the Angel of the Lord: The angel in the burning bush declared himself as Elohim and Yahweh, showing Moses that he was speaking with God directly.

(23:42 - 24:54) Significance of Elohim

- Elohim's Usage: Despite being grammatically plural in Hebrew, Elohim is used in a singular form when referring to God in the Old Testament.
- Oneness of God: A future lesson will explore how this singular usage relates to the Trinitarian concept.

(24:57 - 34:28) God's Leadership and Protection

- Angel's Role: Describes the angel leading Israel, protecting them from dangers, providing necessities like food and water, and being the Good Shepherd as mentioned by Jesus in the New Testament.
- Covenant Angel: The angel is also called the Angel of the Covenant, indicating his role in establishing divine pacts with Israel.
- Shekinah Glory: Moses' encounter with the angel in the Shekinah glory at Mount Sinai, where Moses showed bravery despite fear, mirroring Christ's own bravery.

(24:57 - 34:28) Call to Perseverance and Faith

- Moses as a Type of Christ: Moses' actions are seen as foreshadowing Jesus' sacrifice and leadership through adversity.
- Encouragement: The preacher encourages the congregation to remain faithful and brave, referencing the struggles of the church and the need to endure for Christ, much like the angel did for Israel.
- Invitation to Faith: An invitation is extended for those wishing to accept Jesus Christ as their Savior or to seek support from the church community.
