Scripture Reading

Bible Reader: (0:03 - 2:01), Mike Mathis

Acts 11:15-17 (ESV)

- The speaker welcomes attendees at the building and on the conference line.
- Announces that the scripture reading for the evening is from Acts 11, verses 15-17.
- Peter is narrating his experience of visiting Cornelius, a Gentile.
- Describes how the Holy Spirit fell upon Cornelius and his household while Peter was speaking, mirroring the initial descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.
- Peter recalls Jesus' words about baptism with water and the Holy Spirit.

Summary

Preacher: Mike Mathis

(2:03 - 2:58) Baptism vs. Being Filled with the Holy Spirit

- Clarifies that being filled with the Holy Spirit does not necessarily equate to the baptism of the Holy Spirit.
- Introduction of the evening's topic: continuing the lesson on "Being Filled."

(2:58 - 3:21) Confusion Over Baptism and Being Filled

- Discusses common confusion where baptism is often thought of as being baptized in the Holy Spirit.
- States that being filled with the Holy Spirit is not generally synonymous with baptism.

(3:21 - 4:24) Introduction of John the Baptist

- Introduction of John the Baptist by referencing Luke 1 where an angel informs Zacharias of his son's birth.
- Indicates that John would be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb.

(4:25 - 5:44) Elizabeth and Mary's Encounter

- Describes Mary's visit to Elizabeth, where upon greeting, the baby (John) leaped in Elizabeth's womb.
- Elizabeth is filled with the Holy Spirit during this encounter.

(5:45 - 6:16) The Angel's Announcement to Mary

- Mary questions how she will conceive, being a virgin.
- The angel explains that the Holy Spirit will come upon her, and she will give birth to the Son of God.

(6:17 - 8:05) Elizabeth's Pregnancy and Zacharias' Prophecy

- Elizabeth, previously barren, is in her sixth month of pregnancy.
- Zacharias, once mute for his disbelief, prophesies after naming his son John, filled with the Holy Spirit.

(10:09 - 11:38) Promise of the Holy Spirit

- Jesus, after His resurrection, instructs the disciples to wait in Jerusalem for the promise of the Holy Spirit.
- Distinguishes between John's baptism with water and the upcoming baptism with the Holy Spirit.

(12:17 - 15:08) Election of Matthias

- After Jesus' ascension, the disciples choose Matthias to replace Judas Iscariot.
- Matthias is numbered with the eleven remaining apostles.

(15:10 - 20:14) The Pentecost Event

- On Pentecost, the Holy Spirit descends as a mighty wind, filling the house where the apostles were gathered.
- Apostles speak in other tongues as the Spirit enables them.

(16:23 - 18:45) Clarification of "They" in Acts 2

- Discusses who "they" refers to in Acts 2:1, arguing it specifically refers to the twelve apostles, not the 120 mentioned earlier.

(21:45 - 22:41) Impact on Observers at Pentecost

- The crowd, hearing the apostles speak in various languages, is amazed, questioning if these Galileans are drunk.
- Peter defends against accusations of drunkenness citing the early hour.

(22:45 - 27:51) Peter's Visit to Cornelius

- Peter is called to Cornelius' house by divine intervention.
- The Holy Spirit falls on Cornelius and his household while Peter speaks, leading to their baptism in water after receiving the Holy Spirit.

(28:59 - 29:38) Command for Baptism Post Holy Spirit Baptism

- Peter questions who could prevent these from being baptized in water, emphasizing obedience to the command of baptism.
- Notes that while the Holy Spirit baptism was promised, water baptism is a command that must be followed.

(29:40 - 30:40) Peter's Defense to Jewish Brethren

- Peter defends his interaction with Gentiles, which was traditionally frowned upon.
- Recounts his vision where God showed him that Gentiles were not to be considered unclean.

(30:42 - 31:39) Holy Spirit's Descent on Gentiles

- Peter describes the moment the Holy Spirit fell upon Cornelius and his household, likening it to the event at Pentecost.
- Recalls Jesus' words about being baptized with the Holy Spirit, not just water.

(31:44 - 33:43) Samaritan Conversion and Miracle Power

- Discusses the conversion of Samaritans where Philip preached.
- Apostles Peter and John were sent to lay hands on them for receiving the Holy Spirit, which granted them the ability to perform miracles.

(33:46 - 34:58) Apostolic Authority and Miracles

- Emphasizes that only the apostles could impart the Holy Spirit for miraculous abilities.
- After the death of the last apostle, this power could not be passed on, indicating the end of direct Holy Spirit baptism for miracles.

(35:00 - 35:26) Obedience to Water Baptism

- States that the Samaritans were baptized in water for the remission of sins, fulfilling the command to be baptized.

(35:27 - 36:24) Conclusion on Being Filled with the Holy Spirit

- Concludes by reflecting on being filled with God's will, knowledge, and the Holy Spirit.
- Invites those who are moved by the gospel to respond as the congregation stands and sings.
