Tour 6: The Vision, Engaging with Wisdom

Tour 6: Pre-Tour

Notes for Leaders

There is a lot in this tour. Experience tells me that you might find the Lord doing something deep in your guests here. I've seen people hit by the thought that fruit of the Spirit is not primarily for us; some thumped by the real purpose of wisdom versus how they have always approached requesting God for themselves. The section on the heart and mind has been deeply impactful for many, especially in a culture where the emotions of the heart have become considered almost divine. I am pretty open near the end about my prodigal son. Be aware. This is a common tragedy in Christian families today and you may see it hit some people hard. Often people are hit hard by the thought that they might be living next door to someone's family member that is estranged without hope and they have been ignoring them.

Be in deep prayer before this tour, during and after. You may want to make some phone calls to some that the Lord appeared to be dealing with.
